

PEERProductions

Each year Peer Productions recruits a small team of young actors to join their full time company. We hold workshop auditions throughout the year and the course runs from September—July.

We understand that some candidates will have more experience than others and try to make the audition process as fair and accessible as possible.

We are looking for raw talent and the willingness to work hard so previous experience and qualifications are less important to us.

MAKE PLAYS CHANGE LIVES

Peer Productions is a unique youth arts training company based in Woking, Surrey.

We offer a one year, full time training course for young volunteers aged 16—23 years.

TRAINING

We provide:

Training in acting for stage and screen.

Training in media production skills.

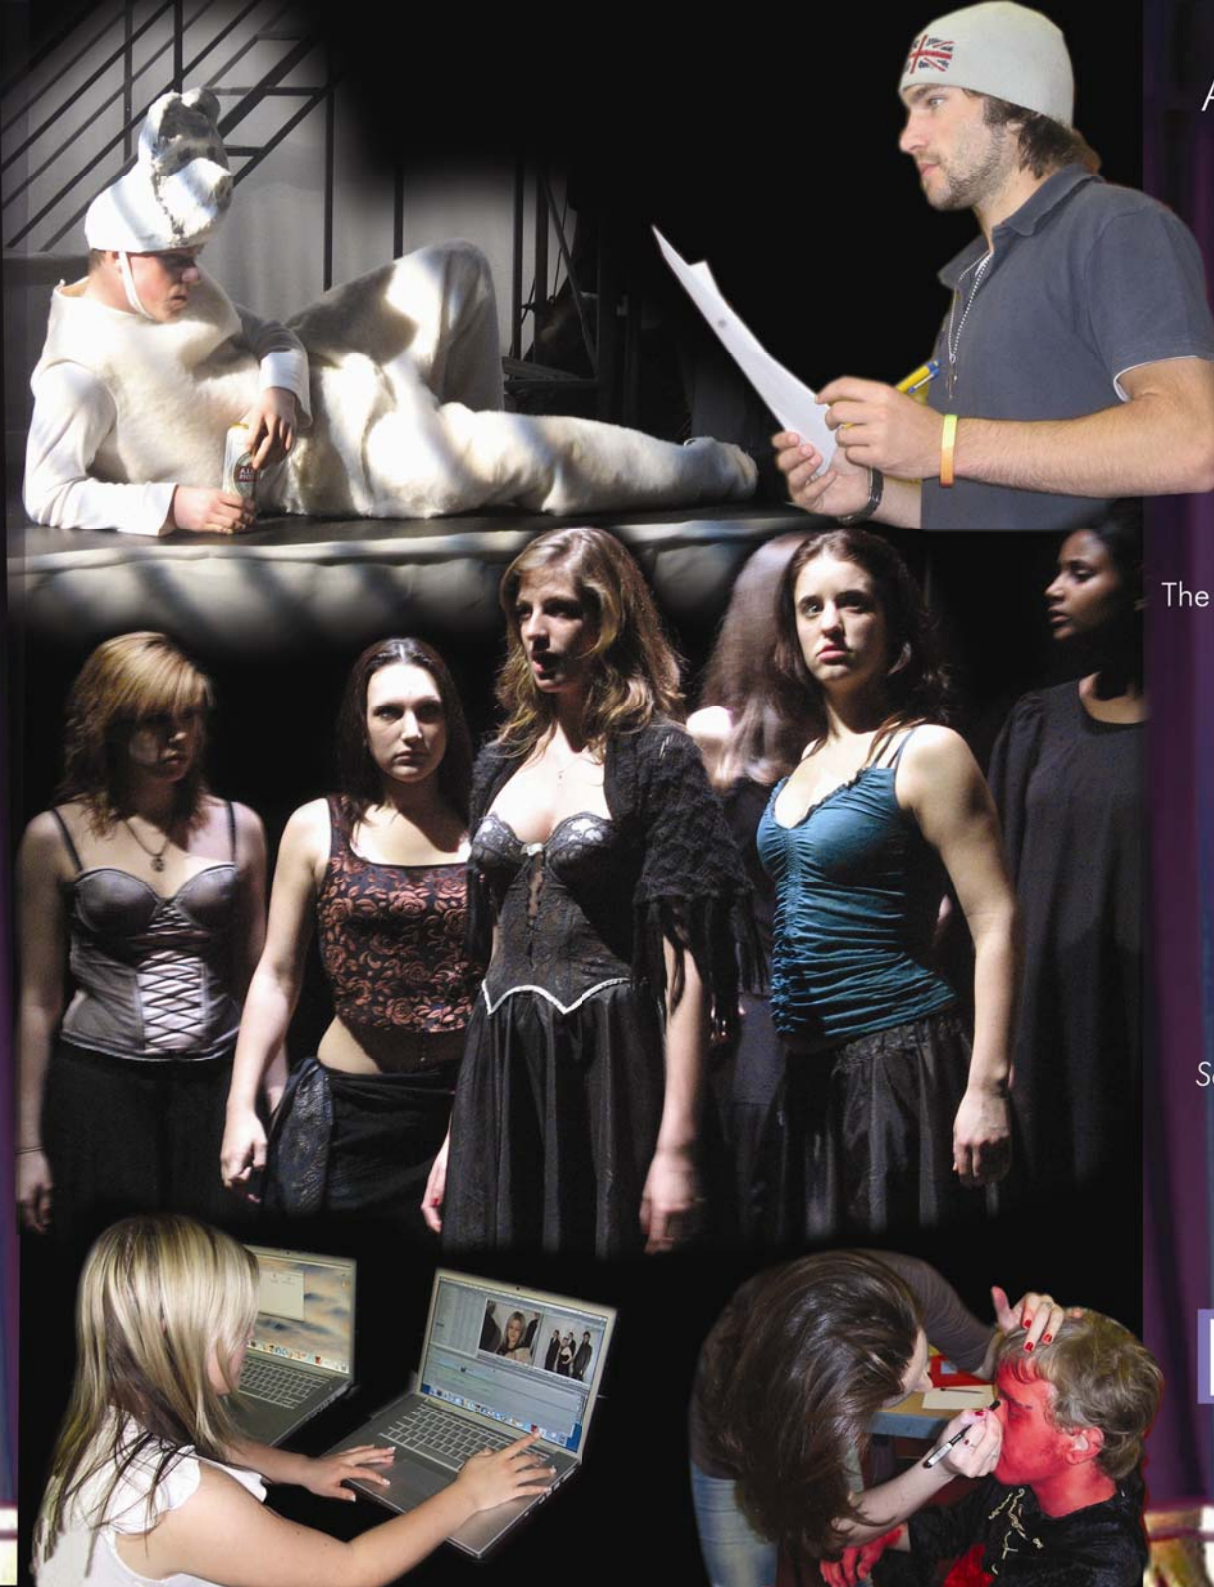

Training in how to lead workshops for youth and community groups.

Masterclasses led by industry professionals.

The opportunity to undertake an Arts Award Gold (Level 3 Accreditation).

Support with drama school, university and job applications.

Previous volunteers have been offered places at drama schools including Central School of Speech and Drama, East 15, Rose Bruford and The American Academy of Drama Arts.

At Peer Productions we believe that the best way to learn new skills is to try them out.

When you join our full time company you will gain valuable experience in the performing arts.

EXPERIENCE

We provide:

The opportunity to take productions on tour to school and community venues.

The opportunity to lead workshops with diverse and challenging groups.

The chance to create your own film projects.

The chance to produce and direct your own arts project.

So if you want to make plays and films that will change both your life and the lives of those around you, now's your chance.
